BUGHO CHURCH STARTS FEEDING PROGRAM

It is planting season in the farming village of Bugho, Alangalang, Leyte. But it is the hardest time of the year for the farmers. All their money has been spent for plowing, seedlings and fertilizers. They are buried in debt and are hungry.

“Conduct a feeding program,” Reuel Belo advised the local brethren. “This is a good time to shine as lights in the community; and it may be some souls may be attracted to Christ this way.”

Some of the children who came for the feeding program by the Bugho church at the back of the house of Pilar Cabangisan where Sunday afternoon service is held every Sunday.

Spinster Editha goes to the waters of baptism accompanied by another lady as a result of feeding program of the Bugho Church Sept. 18, 2011. Lady in white was not baptized but only requested by subject to show no malicious thing was happening to her.

Accordingly, Sis. Aida Cabangisan spent the whole day cooking the local favorite “pansit” and “puto.” By afternoon, all things were ready. Then invitations were sent out to the near neighborhood. And without any delay, 100 came for the free meal and were satisfied and made glad. Most were children. It is not uncommon in the place for one family to have ten or more children.

Thus, so many were made happy with only about PhP1,000.00 or $25.00.

Moreover, an elderly spinster, Editha, was attracted to the gospel and was baptized the succeeding Sunday afternoon of September 18. Afraid of being touched by the handsome male baptizer (Lando Quibedo who is also single), Editha requested another lady to accompany her to the waters of baptism to make sure no malicious act was being done (see picture).

Mother and daughter have been in Leyte Island for about a month. They missed worship on Sunday as was their custom in
